Government's commitment to ensuring peaceful celebrations of Durga Puja. Following the tight security measures, the Durga Puja celebrations were held in 17000 puja mandaps throughout the country.

Regular interaction is held with Government of Bangladesh at different levels and occasions including most recently on the eve of Durga Puja celebrations. Earlier, after the elections in Bangladesh in October 2001, the Government had noted with serious concern reports of attacks on minorities in Bangladesh. This was taken up at a high level with the Government of Bangladesh. Action has been reportedly initiated on many of the prepetrators of the violence.
